General Rules and Conditions of Entry

Entries close December 31st 2009. Late entries will incur a $25 late fee. Temporary membership is compulsory for all non-YVQHA or non-AQHA members.

No telephone or faxed entries will be accepted. Entries will not be refunded without a vet or medical certificate. Parent or Guardian authority must be signed and completed on all Youth entries before Youth are permitted to enter the arena. Back numbers will be distributed on a one-horse basis and correct back numbers must be worn or competitors may be disqualified. Where there are multiple handlers, the correct person must be nominated on entry forms. Failure to do so may result in loss of overall points. Prize money will be paid 40% to first, 30% to second, 20% to third and 10% to fourth unless there is insufficient numbers, then pro rate as specified. Prize money won in Amateur classes is deemed won by the horse. The show committee reserves the right to alter or delete an event should entries be insufficient. Any prize monies not collected within two hours of the conclusion of the show will be forfeited and deemed as a donation to the club.

All complaints or disputes must be addressed to the show manager, lodged in writing and accompanied with a $50.00 protest fee. A disputes committee selected by the Show Manager will deal with all disputes, and their decision is final.

All competitors and their contacts enter the show grounds at their own risk. YVQHA and venue owners/operators will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to property, equipment or stock whatsoever. Any persons causing a disturbance or not complying with Show Management requests will be asked to leave the grounds and all monies paid to the YVQHA will be forfeited.

No person who has outstanding monies owing to the YVQHA will be permitted to compete until all monies are paid in full. No person or trade may sell goods or services during the show on the grounds without YVQHA Show Management written permission, and any person in breach of this rule shall be removed from the grounds and all entry fees and monies paid will be forfeited.

Camping, shower, stables and yard facilities are only available to those who have booked and paid the relevant fees. Campers are to camp where directed by the Committee.

No horses are to be tied to vehicles overnight.

By signing the 2010 Classic Show entry form the YVQHA Show Committee deems that you agree to abide by the above rules and conditions.

All competitors who have not previously signed an AQHA waiver form for YVQHA for the 2009/2010 season must do so before competing.
